FEMALE MISSIONARY INTELLIGENCER,

AND RECORD OF THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOCIETY FOR PROMOTING FEMALE EDUCATION IN CHINA, AFRICA, AND THE EAST.

Annual Subscription, 1s.; by post, 2s.

"A most useful publication, entitled the Female Missionary Intelligencer, edited by Miss Whately, is gradually becoming better known, and is extending an interest throughout Ireland, not only in missionary endeavours generally, but more especially on the subject of female education in the East. Clergymen accustomed to hold missionary meetings will find this little periodical most suggestive, and as the yearly subscription is only 1s., for twelve numbers of the publication, young persons in Sunday-schools might be encouraged to become subscribers."

—Clerical Journal, July 22, 1856.

"A most interesting and useful periodical. . . . Containing most interesting details of the general operations of the Eastern Society. It is a pity that this cheap little publication is not more generally patronised, as it supplies trustworthy materials for missionary sermons, speeches, &c., and may be used beneficially in stirring up young people to make collections for the education and evangelizing of heathen females."

DR. MILNER REFUTED. Part II.

OR,

PIOUS FRAUDS EXEMPLIFIED IN DR. MILNER'S "END OF CONTROVERSY."

Being a Series of Original, Selected, and Contributed Articles, exposing Dr. Milner's Fallacies and Fictions, By CHARLES HASTINGS COLLETTE, Esq.

Price to Subscribers (who send their names before the 1st SEPTEMBER), 3s. post free; to non-Subscribers, 5s.

DUBLIN: WILLIAM CURRY AND CO., 9, Upper Sackville-street.

To the Roman Catholic controversialist, Dr. Milner's book has very extensively supplied weapons of attack, though very few have cared either to test the value of the authority on which their favourite author relies, or to go further for materials; while, on the other hand, there is scarcely a writer on the Protestant side of the question who has not, in one shape or another, been able to detect gross and palpable misrepresentations in Dr. Milner's assertions. We have, therefore, scattered about in different quarters, in chapters and notes, materials (though not easily obtainable by the generality of readers) for exposing these various "pious frauds."

It is our purpose in the present work, without following any particular order, to bring before our readers illustrations of "PIOUS FRAUDS" of the Rev. Dr. MILNER, as exemplified in the work in question, availing ourselves from time to time of the labours of others, as well original as published; and, during this examination, we may occasionally refer to Dr. Milner's other work, "Letters to a Prebendary."

We shall confine ourselves as closely as possible to the exposure of Dr. Milner's misrepresentations, rather than enter on a general discussion or examination of the doctrines of the Roman Church. We are fully aware of the difficulty and extent of the task we have undertaken, arising from the wide range of subjects treated of by Dr. Milner, condensed into a small compass (without any attempt at accuracy, either in citation of historical facts or quotations from writers). Notwithstanding these difficulties, we feel confident that, though it may be impossible in a limited compass to expose all the misrepresentations of Dr. Milner, we shall be able to lay before our readers sufficient to destroy his credit, either as a Divine or Controversialist.

It is earnestly requested that parties wishing to subscribe for the work, may send their names, without delay, accompanied by a remittance for the amount to

MOORE'S IRISH MELODIES.

The Music printed with the Words.

In One Volume, imperial 8vo., small music size, convenient and legible at the Pianoforte, but more portable than the usual form of Musical publications.

"This work in its complete form has been hitherto inaccessible to all but the few who can afford Seven or Eight Pounds for a single book; and the Publishers are assured that few more valuable contributions could be offered to the public taste than an Edition of these exquisite Melodies, comprising the Music as well as the Words, in a convenient form, and at a moderate price. In the original edition many of the Airs were given only as harmonised for two, three, or four voices; but those who were acquainted with the Poet knew that, with one or two exceptions, they were all intended to be sung by a single voice, as his own delightful execution of many that were so harmonised amply testified. In the present volume, therefore, the Airs are all, with the few exceptions above mentioned, reduced to the leading part for one voice; and the Harmonised Melodies will be published in their concerted form in a separate volume. The arrangements and the symphonies, composed by Sir John Stevenson and Sir Henry Bishop, are faithfully retained, because they underwent the scrutiny of the Author, and were adopted by him only when each had satisfied his taste by its exact adaptation to the character of the Air and the spirit of his Poem."
